

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Excelsior Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F., will meet in Odd Fellows hall at half-past seven this evening.

The Hawaiian band will play at the departure of the new steamer Zealandia this afternoon. There will be no concert at Thomas Square tonight, as the band plays with the National Guard.

With the death of Samuel N. Emerson last week, another of the charter members of the local Y. M. C. A. passed away. Mr. Emerson was an active member of the association for the past forty-three years.

Chief McDuffie and his staff last night captured thirteen Japanese playing joo-han in Maunaloa valley, mauka of the Chinese cemetery. They put up a hard fight and almost tore the house down in their endeavors to escape.

Max Alonzo, the Filipino thief, was sentenced to a year in jail yesterday by Judge Andrade on one charge and was let off with a suspended sentence on a second charge. Alonzo has another charge to face being accused of stealing a watch chain from a Japanese.

The annual meeting of the members of the Honolulu chamber of commerce will be held at three o'clock this afternoon, at the rooms of the chamber, Stangenwald building, for the purpose of electing officers and trustees to serve for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of other business.

Ah Quan, a belligerent Chinaman, was yesterday arrested by the police on complaint of his wife, who accuses him of threatening to shoot her as soon as night arrived. As he was apprehended before the time set, it can not be ascertained whether he meant to put his threat into execution or not.

The sunbeam and cradle roll classes of Central Union church will hold a picnic at Kapiolani Park Wednesday. The mothers and children are invited to bring lunch, which will be served at noon. Children's games will be played in the afternoon and Kapellmeister Berger and his band will furnish appropriate music.

A smart little blaze gutted two shacks on Union lane yesterday afternoon, cleaning out what little was in them and causing a few hundred dollars damage. One was occupied by G. Hiraoka and the other by A. Dias, a ukulele maker, who lost his instruments. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to have started on the roof. The buildings belonged to Mr. Walters, and were only saved by the quick action of the department. They are practically useless now.

BIDS FOR Y. M. C. A. BUILDING IN SEPTEMBER

A cablegram from Mr. Ripley, architect of the new Y. M. C. A. building, was received yesterday, stating that he would arrive by the next Wilhelmnia, on September 6. Bids for the contract will be called for immediately after his arrival, and it is only a short time until work will begin on the excavation.

It is hoped by Secretary Paul Super that the handsome new building can be dedicated on September 28, 1911, since September 28 was the date on which the present building was dedicated in 1882. The regular religious, educational, physical and social activities of the association begin about October 1, so this date would give the members the use of the new quarters at just the time of year they are most needed.

VARIETY AT ORPHEUM PLEASES BIG CROWD

The best yet may well be said of the vaudeville bill put on last evening by the members of the Casino company at the New Orpheum, for, taken individually and collectively, the numbers as rendered last evening are the most enjoyable yet presented here.

The vaudeville is opened by the Casino Four, the four chorus girls retained of the original ten brought over for the musical comedies. The girls this week do a fast Russian dance in costumes of blue gray made with the conventional belted Russian blouses which are very becoming. The girls also are giving better assistance in the numbers of the principals in which they appear.

Bunyea and Gideon, the newcomers, put on an act that outclassed the one given last week. Miss Mabel Bunyea sang two of Mr. Gideon's compositions, "I Want Some One to Flirt With Me," and a ragtime ditty with a reference to a hula dance which brought a big laugh.

In the first song Miss Bunyea wore one of the Frenchiest costumes seen here for a long time. It was of two shades of pink silk with trimmings of sable, seed pearls and light pink coral beadwork. The gown for the second song was of black silk voile with trimmings of real cut jet beads. Melville Gideon sang another of his Italian songs and by request played the Barcarole from "The Love Tales of Hoffmann."

Miss Maude Rockwell sang "Waiting" by request, and for her second number gave a most charming rendition of the little gem from the opera of "Martha," the "Last Rose of Summer." The beautifully carried out business with the real American beauty rose comes natural now to Miss Rockwell as she has so many times played the role in the opera.

The Steechs are both as dainty and charming as ever. Miss Olga appears in a Buster Brown suit of pink linen with her hair down her back in curls and sings and dances her way into the hearts of the audience. Miss Vilpa has a rather old song in "Will You Miss Me," but she does it so well that it is a welcome number in the bill.

Laurel Atkins's contribution to the vaudeville program was the real hit of the evening. If Harry Lauder had been in the audience he might have called her singing and make-up a caricature, but he would have had to hand it to Miss Atkins just the same for her cleverness. Whether it be classed as an imitation or a caricature, Miss Atkins's copy of the Scotch comedian is a splendid piece of work not the least enjoyable part of which is due to her control and use of her feet in the Scotch dance.

Carleton Chase also selected an old song when he sang "Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet." Still, it is better to hear an old song well done than a new one poorly rendered. Harris McQuire has a good piece of music in the "Honolulu Rag" and would no doubt have made a hit if some sailors in the audience had not taken offense at his make-up and insisted on guying all through the number.

Harry Garrity and Harry Stuart did not appear in the vaudeville, but were assigned parts in the farce which followed. Mr. Garrity wore the well-known red wig and talked in his usual Irish style while Mr. Stuart was again assigned to the part of the old grey-haired man. Others in the cast of the farce, which is fairly funny and entertaining are Olga Stech, Laurel Atkins, Maude Rockwell, Carleton Chase and Harris McQuire.

Miss Mae Donald, it is expected, will accompany Miss McKenzie on her return from the delightful visit and will make a short stay in this city. Miss McKenzie will sail for the Hawaiian Islands on Wednesday next on the steamer Wilhelmnia, and will be the guest of relatives and friends in Honolulu for some time.

TRUNKS

We are ready to confirm our belief that our trunks, received last week, are the best made, the roomiest and the strongest, ever brought to this country. This is a broad statement and the trunks are silent evidence of the truthfulness of it.

They are from thirty to thirty-eight inch in length, deep enough to hold a wardrobe for an actress or a family, and will stand all the hard knocks a baggage smasher can inflict.

This is almost a new line for us to handle and for that reason we believe we have profited by the mistakes of other dealers. The manufacturers have spent forty-two years securing trunk efficiency and have reached the goal.

We have trunks for steamer travel; double locked, brass finish on edges and bolts. Canvas covered and reinforced with sole leather. Time itself cannot get away with one of these trunks.
